Knights creating a beautiful prayer space at our Grotto

Our Knights of Columbus have begun a special project to create a more enhanced and inviting prayer space at the Our Lady of Guadalupe Grotto and shrine at the front of our church. Several Knights have volunteered their services and talents to complete this project. Our team of volunteers gathered at the Grotto recently to start planning this venture. The project began with Knight and artist Ken van Winkle beautifully painting and restoring the statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe. We look forward to the completion of this project in the coming months. On another note we congratulate the Knights officers who were officially installed to their new roles at a special ceremony at our church, presided by Fr. Jojo and the District deputy.

Congratulations to Graduates and Teachers!

As the summer holidays begin, we congratulate all who are graduating from our school community, and all our teachers who are retiring or moving to new roles. We commend all our teachers, school staff, students and their families for persevering and prevailing through a very difficult pandemic-ridden school year. We pray for all our students, school staff, and their families to have a safe and blessed Summer and for them to return well rested and refreshed in September.

Families with children who participated in program of preparation for First Communion in 2020 & 2021

Thank you to those who have reserved a spot through Eventbrite for First Holy Communion. We would like to welcome your child at the table of the Lord for First Holy Communion before September. Email dwhelan@archtoronto.org before the end of June, with the date and time you have chosen, to allow us to prepare the certificates.

Update

The Catholic Church's continued efforts for justice and reconciliation with Indigenous peoples in Canada

In view of the recent discoveries at the former Indian Residential Schools and the Church's relationship with the Indigenous peoples in Canada, we are all in search of answers and ultimately for justice and reconciliation. The Archdiocese of Toronto has created a page with a number of resources on Indigenous reconciliation. You can view that page here:

Hope, Love and Compassion: Torah of Possibility for an Uncertain Future: Mon. July 5 to Thurs. July 15

(A virtual event recommended by The Office For Promoting Christian Unity and Religious Relations With Judaism) The Shalom Hartman Institute is a leading centre of Jewish thought and education. The institute has planned a free virtual public symposium that will feature lectures, conversation, study seminars and learning opportunities. Participants will interact with many leading Jewish scholars who will explore the meaning of hope, love, compassion, the dynamics of power and privilege, Jewish identity, understanding antisemitism and the role of the community during uncertain times, such as the COVID-19 pandemic.

A Prayer for Canada (adapted from original)

Loving Father, we thank you for the gift of our great country Canada. We give thanks for our land, magnificent from sea to sea.

A home that welcomes refugees and immigrants alike; together with our founding citizens: Indigenous, French and British, we share our natural beauty and rich heritage with all who step onto our shores, may we continue to live in unity and peace.

We pray for all people of God in Canada that we will be true and faithful servants and stewards of our land.

For the freedom of religion and conscience, for a system of government that provides us the right to speak freely; laws that protect equality, culture and social justice, we give thanks.

Bless our leaders. Grant wisdom to those who govern so that justice and peace will thrive.

For all these gifts, most especially the gift of Your love showered upon this land, we thank you. Amen

— Louise Minniti, The Catholic Women's League of Canada

VOCATIONS

Is God calling you to be His voice in His Church?

This Sunday's readings speak of prophets sent by God. Could God be calling you to be His voice in His Church at this time? If so, you could give it a try by responding to that inclination towards priesthood, religious life or the diaconate, contact:

Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997

or email: vocations@archtoronto.org or visit: www.vocationstoronto.ca

We continue to pray for all who are discerning and who are currently in formation in all of our seminaries.
