SUNDAY REFLECTION

On the solemnity of Christ the King, the gospel presents Christ as the noble prisoner, robed in purple and crowned with thorns as king before a Roman judge. Jesus claims a spiritual authority that has nothing to do with the power to compel by force. His authority is the authority of truth. He is our king, who lives the truth and has the power to lead others to the truth and set them free.

Today's Preface describes Christ's kingdom as one of truth and life, of holiness and grace, of justice, love and peace. This ideal is not to be merely a future hope but is to be worked for in the present. The kingdom is our hope, but somehow it is also in our midst, in the process of becoming. The Gospel tells us how we are to promote the fuller coming of God's kingdom among us. It comes whenever justice is done for the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, and the oppressed.

The best way to honor Christ our King is to work to make his kingdom a reality among us. Anything we do for the relief of the deprived and underprivileged is also a service to Christ because he identifies himself personally with people in need. To be deaf to the cries of the neighbors in need is to close our ears to Christ. To be blind to the anguish of the dying is to shut our eyes to him. If we follow Jesus Christ as our Shepherd-king we must in some way be shepherds ourselves, for his sake. Happy Feast to you and your family.

We pray for our sick

May God ease their pain and give them peace and strength. We pray especially for Murray Morello, Gina Palisca, Doreen Leavens and all who are ill in our parish family, and all those whose names we have placed on our altar.

We pray for all our departed

We pray for all who have died, especially Giuseppe Manserra and Scott Rae. May they find rest and peace in their eternal home.
