Congratulations Graduates and Teachers!

As the summer holidays begin, we congratulate all who are graduating from our school community, the university and college graduates from our parish, and all our teachers, especially those who are retiring or moving to new roles. We commend all our teachers, school staff, students and their families for persevering and prevailing through another difficult pandemic ridden school year. We pray for all our students, school staff, and their families to have a safe and blessed Summer and for them to return well rested and refreshed in September.
