Happy Father's Day!

We praise and thank God for:

Fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

Fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a worthy and virtuous father.

Fathers who, by their own account, were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support.

Fathers who, despite marital discord, have remained in their children's lives.

Fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has nurtured a thriving life.

Fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect.

Fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Those who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

Those who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

The men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.

Fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

Prayer of Kirk Loadman adapted by Debra Mooney, PhD, Xavier University

Archbishop Leo's Message for Father's Day

I wish to extend my warmest best wishes and God's abundant blessings upon all the Fathers in the Archdiocese of Toronto, with a resounding "Happy Father's Day," and to thank you for your faithfulness to such an incredible vocation in the Church. How great it is to father a child; and yet becoming a loving, responsible and reliable dad takes great heart, patience, intentionality and courage. You play such a vital and irreplaceable role in your child's life and in the stability of the family unit. Together with your spouse, you are the true pillars in the development of your child's spiritual, human, physical, emotional and social life as they instinctively look to you so that you may teach them words of wisdom, boundaries to be respected and rules to be obeyed. You are that provider, protector, guide, leader and consoler that children need to have in their lives so that they may fulfill their calling and live the abundant life. You give them support and security, a link to their past, and you open up for them a horizon and opportunities for their future in the world before them. When you are involved in their lives and take your place in family life, children flourish, they come to know their worth and relish in self-confidence and in the knowledge of their unique giftedness.

This is a shorter version. To read the Archbishop's full message visit www.archtoronto.org

Prayer Shawl Ministry

OLQW Prayer Shawl Ministry invites all knitters and crocheters to join us. No matter what your skill level, come and experience an uplifting sense of creating warmth and comfort for people in need! If you are interested in joining this beautiful ministry, please call the office at 905-884-7006 or visit www.olqw.com/list-of-ministries/ to learn more.

National Indigenous Peoples Day Friday June 21

For generations, many Indigenous peoples and communities have celebrated their culture and heritage on June 21 or around that time of year because of the significance of the summer solstice as the longest day of the year. National Aboriginal Day, now National Indigenous Peoples Day, was announced in 1996 by then Governor General of Canada, Roméo LeBlanc.

Prayer for Healing and Reconciliation

O Blessed Virgin, Our Lady of Guadalupe, Intercede for us with your Son, that we who live in this land, Indigenous and non-Indigenous together may experience healing and reconciliation, on a renewed journey for justice and peace for our children. Mother of the Church, pray for us.
