Corpus Christi Sunday

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. As disciples of Jesus, the Holy Eucharist should be the very foundation of our lives. Do we view the Holy Mass as the highlight of our week? We should deeply reflect on the importance of the Mass in our lives. The high point of the Mass is the consecration, where the lowly bread and wine become the very body, blood, soul and divinity of Christ. There are still other important moments in the Mass. One often overlooked moment is the Offertory. The Offertory is where we offer our gifts, the bread and wine, but also our time and talents, and essentially, our very selves, in order to be miraculously transformed by God. We may think that we cannot offer God anything spectacular, yet the Offertory provides us a way. The same way that God, through Jesus, transforms simple bread into His very body, so too can he turn our small efforts of charity and stewardship into great graces for the Kingdom. We see this in the Gospel as the disciples offered Jesus just five loaves and two fish. However, it is through this offering that Jesus was able to miraculously feed thousands of people. The next time we attend Mass let us intentionally call to mind all of the time, talents and gifts which we share with others. God will begin to transform our works into great miracles for the sake of the Gospel. (Archdiocese of Toronto—Sunday Reflections)
