Saints Peter and Paul

This weekend we celebrate the feast day of Saints Peter and Paul. They are the founders of the See of Rome, the central governing body of our Roman Catholic Church.

Peter was one of the first apostles of Jesus. He was the first to recognize that Jesus was “the Messiah, the Son of the living God,” and eagerly pledged his loyalty until death. In his boldness, he also made many mistakes, however, such as denying Jesus three times on the night of His passion. Yet despite his human weaknesses, Peter was chosen by Jesus to shepherd God’s flock. Jesus gave him the name Cephas, which means ‘Rock,’ because he was to become the rock upon which Christ would build His Church. Thus Peter became the first Pope. Peter spent many years leading the Church through persecution, and was eventually martyred in Rome in the year 64. He was buried on Vatican hill; St. Peter’s Basilica is built over his tomb.

St. Paul was the Apostle of the Gentiles. His letters are included in the writings of the New Testament, and are read at Mass almost every Sunday. Through them we learn much about his life and the faith of the early Church. Before receiving the name Paul, he was Saul, a pharisee who zealously persecuted Christians in Jerusalem. Saul had a dramatic conversion experience in which he was blinded by a great light from heaven, and fell off his horse. He then heard the voice of Jesus asking him why he was persecuting Christ and his followers. Saul then continued to Damascus, where he was baptized and his sight was restored. He took the name Paul and spent the remainder of his life preaching the Gospel tirelessly to the Gentiles of the Mediterranean world. Paul was imprisoned and taken to Rome, where he was beheaded in the year 67. He is buried in Rome in the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls.

St. Augustine of Hippo challenges us in his words about Saints Peter and Paul: “Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles’ blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith.”
